”My job requires the capacity to grasp what’s important. There are lots of issues to deal with, so the ability to identify what’s essential is vital.

- Sari, Director of Finance, Defence Forces

BASIC INFORMATION ON GOVERNMENT AS AN EMPLOYER

Are you interested in repetitive tasks in a static working environment? Would you like to perform the same things like clockwork day after day?...

Or would you prefer a job at the heart of society, engaged in diverse and interesting work? Plus an international dimension, extensive development opportunities and flexible working conditions?

If this sounds more like the career you’re looking for, see what the Government can offer you!

- According to research, one of the most popular employers in Finland.
- Jobs throughout Finland.
- Around 83,000 employees – nearly equal numbers of men and women. Around 120 different employers.
- Government employees have high job satisfaction.

”Through my work, I’ve been able to make a concrete impact, for example in the field of human rights.

- Janne, North Africa Team Leader,
Ministry for Foreign Affairs

”This is teamwork. Issues are considered and solved together. You’re not left to cope on your own; help and support are always available.

- Jani, Senior Officer, Uusimaa ELY Centre for Economic Development, Transport and the Environment

A DIVERSE WORKPLACE

- Wide-ranging tasks
- Diverse and challenging work
- Excellent development opportunities
- A modern, vibrant working environment
- Good working conditions
- Flexible and stable
- Interesting career opportunities
- International assignments and training

EXPERTISE PLAYS A KEY ROLE

- Expert, motivated personnel are the Government’s key success factor.
- Specialists in different fields have highly diverse educational backgrounds.
- In specialist tasks, a university-level degree, good language skills and an interest in social issues are highlighted.
- Skills development is supported in many ways at different career stages.

” Preparation of legislation.
If you're ready to influence broad issues, but also have an eye for detail.

- Liisa, Senior Adviser for Legislative Affairs,
Ministry of Justice

” The workload is heavy at times, but working practices are more flexible than in the private sector,
ensuring high job satisfaction.

- Olli, Specialist, Tekes – The Finnish Funding
Agency for Technology and Innovation

AN EQUAL AND DEVELOPING WORKING COMMUNITY

- The Government does long-term work to promote the quality of working life.
- Working conditions are continually developed by renewing working methods.
- Wellbeing in work is promoted through joint development of the working environment and an effective working community.
- A clear, incentivising remuneration system, with salary consisting of both job-specific and personal elements, promotes the implementation of equal pay.
- Equality is also advanced by promoting flexible opportunities to reconcile work and family life.

THE GOVERNMENT NEEDS EXPERTS – ALSO IN THE FUTURE

- Owing to personnel mobility and retirement, many jobs are becoming available in Government.
- Changing working environments and rapidly developing technology are creating new kinds of Government jobs; there is a high demand for ICT specialists, for example.
